

Laura Lane
President of Global Affairs, UPS

Laura Lane serves as President of Global Public Affairs for UPS. Prior to joining UPS, Laura was Managing Director and Head of International Government Affairs at Citigroup and VP for Global Public Policy with Time Warner. In her government career, Ms. Lane served in the US Trade Representative's office, involved in the negotiations on China's entry to the World Trade Organization (WTO) and the WTO Financial Services negotiations. Ms. Lane was a diplomat in the U.S. Foreign Service from 1990-1997, serving at the American Embassy in Kigali, Rwanda from 1993-1994. She led the evacuation effort of American citizens in April 1994 with the outbreak of civil war and returned as political advisor to U.S. forces providing humanitarian relief to Rwandan refugees. Laura subsequently delivered a TED talk on her experiences on "When to Follow your Heart and Write your own Rules" and shared her perspectives on the Rwandan genocide in the PBS/Frontline documentary "Ghosts of Rwanda." Ms. Lane also served as economic and consular officer in Bogota, Colombia from 1990-1992.

She serves as the Chairman of the Board for the Coalition of Service Industries (CSI), as Vice President of the Board of the German American Business Council and as a member of the Board of the US Chamber of Commerce and the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital. In 2014 and again in 2016, she also served as Corporate Chair of the Global Partnership Initiative for Refugees International.

Ms. Lane holds a Bachelor's degree in political science and history from Loyola University and a Master's of Science Degree from Georgetown University. She is married to Greg Lane, an electrical engineer and former US Marine, and has two daughters.