

Peter Grauer

Chairman, Bloomberg, LP

Peter T. Grauer is chairman of Bloomberg, the global financial technology company that was founded in 1981. He has been a member of the Bloomberg Board of Directors since October 1996 and was named chairman of the board in March 2001, succeeding Michael R. Bloomberg.

Mr. Grauer joined Bloomberg full time as chairman, president and CEO in March 2002. Prior to joining Bloomberg, Mr. Grauer was a managing director of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette from 1992 to 2000 when DU was acquired by Credit Suisse First Boston. He is a founder of DU Merchant Banking Partners and DU Investment Partners and had also served as a managing director and senior partner of CSFB Private Equity.

Mr. Grauer graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the Harvard University Graduate School of Business, Program for Management Development. Mr. Grauer serves as lead director of DaVita Health Care Partners, Inc. (NYSE: DVA), a healthcare services company based in Colorado. He is a member of the Business Council and McKinsey Advisory Council. He is also a member of the International Business Council of the World Economic Forum and serves on its Media, Entertainment and Information, Financial Services and Gender Parity Board of Governors. He is founding Chairman of the Community of Chairmen at the World Economic Forum. Mr. Grauer is the Senior Independent Director and Chairman of the Nominations and Audit Committees of Glencore.

He is an Independent Director and member of the Audit Committee of Blackstone (NYSE:BX). Grauer is the President of the Board of Trustees of the Inner City Scholarship Fund in New York City and a member of the Partnership for Inner City Education Board of Directors. He is a trustee of Rockefeller University and is Chairman of the Rockefeller Finance & Operations Committee. Grauer is member of Jazz at Lincoln Center and serves on its Compensation and Labor Committee. He is founding Chairman of the U.S. 30% Club and a member of Out Leadership's Global Advisory Board. Mr. Grauer is a member of the Board of the Prostate Cancer Foundation and is Chairman of the College Advising Corps. Mr. Grauer is also a member of the British American Business International Advisory Board and the Asia Business Council. He is Emeritus board member of Room to Read and the Board of the USA Cycling Development Foundation.

He is a former member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and several UNC entities. He is the Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Directors of The Big Apple Circus and is a former President of the Pomfret School Board of Trustees. He is a recipient of the Peterson Business Award, the William Richardson Davie Award, the Dean's Award for Distinguished Service to the College of Arts and Science at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the Papal Order of Merit. Mr. Grauer and his wife Laurie have three daughters.

