The Honorable Miguel Lacayo
Minister of Economy
San Salvador, El Salvador

Dear Minister Lacayo:

I have the honor to confirm the following understanding reached between the delegations of the United States and El Salvador in the course of negotiations regarding the Free Trade Agreement between our Governments signed this day (the "Agreement"):

The United States and El Salvador pledge to urge their specialized agencies to implement technical and scientific work dedicated to achieving market access to make trade in poultry products under the Agreement of mutual benefit.

I have the honor to propose that this letter and your letter of confirmation in reply shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Zoellick

The Honorable Robert B. Zoellick
United States Trade Representative
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ambassador Zoellick:

I am pleased to acknowledge your letter of today's date, which reads as follows:

“I have the honor to confirm the following understanding reached between the delegations of the United States and El Salvador in the course of negotiations regarding the Free Trade Agreement between our Governments signed this day (the “Agreement”):

The United States and El Salvador pledge to urge their specialized agencies to implement technical and scientific work dedicated to achieving market access to make trade in poultry products under the Agreement of mutual benefit.

I have the honor to propose that this letter and your letter of confirmation in reply shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments.”

I have the honor to confirm that the understanding referred to in your letter is shared by my Government, and that your letter and this reply shall constitute an agreement between our Governments.

Sincerely,

Miguel Lacayo
