

August 5, 2004

The Honorable Norman Garcia
Minister of Industry and Trade
Tegucigalpa, Honduras

Dear Minister Garcia:

In connection with the signing of the Dominican Republic – Central America – United States Free Trade Agreement (the “Agreement”), I have the honor to propose that the letters dated May 28, 2004 that our Governments signed in connection with the signing of the United States – Central America Free Trade Agreement on that date are equally valid and applicable with respect to the Agreement. These letters are:

1. Letter on nurses
2. Letter on textile fabrics study

A copy of each letter is enclosed.

I have the further honor to propose that this letter and your letter of confirmation in reply shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Zoellick
